

El Museo del Barrio (105th Street): We have the greatest music around and that's why everybody gravitates toward the top of Museum Mile. We'll have a storytelling performance with a group called Abbasubi who sing children's songs. The performance is bilingual (English and Spanish), very interactive, and a lot of fun!

Museum of the City of New York (103rd Street): Enjoy family activities, special performances and our current exhibitions, which include Cars, Culture, and the City.

The Jewish Museum (92nd Street): You'll want to try out art-making adventures related to Curious George on Fifth Avenue and also, don't miss our underwater-themed reading room filled with Curious George books!

Smithsonian
Cooper-Hewitt, National Design Museum

Cooper-Hewitt, National Design Museum (91st Street): One of the coolest things you'll find is a beautiful evening dress made out of shoelaces - one of over 130 projects in the National Design Triennial: Why Design Now?

Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum (89th Street): Create unique artwork with the IRubNY project. Cool group of folks who'll teach you how to make crayon rubbings of interesting surfaces found right outside our museum!

The Metropolitan Museum of Art (82nd Street): The Museum has so many wonderful objects and places to discover and explore that it's impossible to choose just one. Come, make some fabulous discoveries for yourself, and leave with not just one, but a whole list of "coolest things!"

Don't miss all this and more—June 8th: Catch the Cool: Cool Culture Meets You at the Museum Mile Festival! Be sure to look out for updates and more cool Museum Mile resources at www.coolculture.org!
