Find:
New Year's Greeting, Nome Alaska, 1910

Turn this card over to find a hint about where I am!

COOL fact:
This is a greeting card for the Jewish New Year, Rosh Hoshanah. It was created for Jewish people that lived in Alaska. Instead of making a card with paper, the artist carved into a walrus tusk!

DURING YOUR VISIT:
• What do you see etched, or carved, into this artifact?
• Some of the writing is in English, and some is in Hebrew. Can you find the Hebrew letters? They are offering New Year's wishes to the person who received this card.
• Tell a story about the man and the woman in the picture. What would they say to each other if they were to come alive?
• Find other art in the museum created with unusual materials.

Before and After Your Visit:
• Make a carving of your own! You can use a toothpick or pencil to carve on a bar of soap or Styrofoam.
• The card in the Museum has words written in Hebrew. Discuss with your child what language(s) your family or friends speak. Help your child to say some words in another language.

COOL CULTURE CONNECT: Connect beyond your visit!
Dial 718.408.2393 and enter 72# and 73# for more ways to explore The Jewish Museum! Cell phones may not be used inside The Jewish Museum's galleries.

The Jewish Museum is devoted to exploring the remarkable scope and diversity of 4,000 years of art and culture relating to the Jewish experience. The collection ranges from archaeological artifacts to works by today's innovative artists.
