COOL fact:

The artist created this beautiful mask by carving ivory. An Oba, or king, in Benin, Nigeria would have worn it. The face on the mask is the king's mother, or Iyoba.

COOL!
YOU
FOUND
IT!

DURING YOUR VISIT:

- Can you imitate the expression on her face?
- This is a mask made to honor the king's mother. Can you find her headdress?
- Find the fishlike creatures on the mask. They are mudfish, which live on both land and in water. Mudfish were a symbol for the king, who was thought to live in both the earthly and spiritual realms.
- Can you find the carvings of faces around the edge of the mask? They are faces of the people who sailed down the coast of Africa to trade with the people of Benin. Have you ever traded something with a friend?

Before and After Your Visit:

- With your child, recall a time that he or she has worn a mask or costume. Ask: When did you wear it? Why? How did it feel to wear the mask?
- Encourage your child to role-play: Have your child imagine that he or she was a king or queen wearing this mask.
